

Interests Cooking Tashion

The Barton Bedtime Stories

BY JOHN BARTON

The Red Cow guessed right. When Towns Peels came I ome the vary The Red Cow guessed right. When Tommy Peele came tome the very first thing his cousin Sandy said was: "One of your cows was over in the Deep Woods last night but she got back again, some way or another, so I can't for the life of me figure out which one it was." Neither of them suspected the steepy-eyed old bassy standing in the middle of the hard with her lip lopped down as if she were almost too lazy to switch. she were almost too lazy to switch at a fly. She was cocking her big ears at them and chuckling to herself because she'd been smart enough to lick all the burns out of her coat-"Are you sure she was out."" to flock to the Schneider farm, north-east of Council Bluffs, rendezvous of gunmen routed a week or so ago. They go with pick and shovel to dig hiding." (As she certainly was, right where Sandy said, too.)

It did sound sort of interest-

Then we'll have to hunt Trailer other. Every bit of ground was extended for traces of fresh earth mounds. Every corner and nook in the house, barn and cuthouses was borse. Louis and I can ride him."

begged the little boy. tof course to the house, but nothing was found.

The wells of the house was ground.

he wouldn't forget Louis Thompso when there was anything so exciting as this going on. "You get another

A-1 Steer Shoulder

Shoulder Veal Roast.

Legs of Lamb.

Eastern Salt Pork,

Armour's Shield Bacon,

Swift's Premium Bacon,

Whole or half .....

Whole or half .....

The Best Always

Bon Ton Meat Market

LINSENMEYER & GEENEN

21 East Adams

Proprietors

Rib Boil,

SATURDAY

SPECIALS

Bon Ton Meat Specials not only guarantee unquestioned quality but clear-cut savings. Figure your savings by the month and you'll buy at the Pot Roast .....

Per lb. .....

Rump Roast, Per lb. .... 18c and 20c

Once Tommy perched on the red colt's back they raced to the woods in

NEXT STORY: THUNDERPAWS MYSTERIOUS BEHAVIOR.

TOWN SEEKS TREASURE

Hunters for buried gold have begun where Sandy said, too.)

"Sure. The top of the gate is all smashed down where she jumped through. And there's a great big piece knawed out of the bottom. Now who do you spose did that? And why? It's the queerest thing—"

"Let's show it to your old hound and see who he finds," grinned Tommy. It did sound sort of interest.

ficers and bank officials who hunted on the farm from one end to the

The walls of the house were pried into to disclose possible secret panels or hiding places in the partitions or floors, but all wit out success.

Presence of strangers on the place head only served to stimulate curiosity of the folk in the surrounding country. and when the word went out that the visitors were bank officials looking for stolen plunder it was passed around the community like fire in Buried treasure This was enough!

Excitement of the gun battle with a gang of outlaws in their peaceful community wa intensified by tales of buried treasures. of buried treasure.

Singly and in groups of two and three treasure seekers appeared at the farm and began to turn up the sod in likely looking places. Not only was the farm searched thoroughly, but the surrounding pastures were

There were those desirous of makwho stole forth at night to work by

However no report has yet been as this going on.) "You get another ene."

So that was the way it was fixed. Off galloped Sandy to get Redskin's four-legged mate, and off went Tommy after his two-legged one. The roan mare was in Sandy's barn, but Louie was gone too.

"He went to the woods." Louie's mother explained. "He was in such a terrible rush he could hardly wait to get his chores done."

"That's the queerest thing,' thought Tommy, "I wonder if Trailer's with him."

However no report has yet been heard of apything in the way of treasure being found. The authorities believe that if loot ever is found it will be "finders are keepers," and the lucky one will not reveal it. Federal and state officials are convinced that i vast quantity of plunder not only from banks, but freight cars and stores, was concealed by the outlaws somewhere in the vicinity of Council Blufis and has not been removed.—Omaha World Herald.

"Your boy Josh is going to make"

"Your boy Josh is going to make "That's the queerest thing—!" his mark."
snorted the roan mare as Sandy put his saidle on her for the first time.
But she didn't spoil the fun because Sandy could stick on pretty tight and —Washington Star.

Fashion's Latest In Hair Dress! Try Them Out

DEBUTANTE AT THE LEFT: UPPER AND LOWER RIGHT. METHOD FOR INDIAN CIRCLET AND FINISHED COIF.

BY MARIAN HALE

iatest fashions in hair dressing.
"The Debutante," for tirls and young women under twenty-three, the Mian Circlet for whatever age has the right contour of neck and head. NEW YORK-Here are the very

The hair modes are from the coiffure dictator, Madame Louise, of Nestle's, and represent the American adaption of the very last Parisian de-

And listen: Although you would never suspect from the finished re-sults, bobbed hair may be complete-ing the gospel of righteousness.

This makes Mr. Elmore and family extremely reluctant to sever their relationship with the Phoenix church, so sincere have been the petitions that be remain, and so fine the promise

f the future, foreshalowing the be-innings of great undertakings. But uthless Time 'pauses not to sit and nuse,' and already plans are matur-ng for a successor who will find a people with a mind to work. "As to Mr. Elmore's departure sults, bobbed hair may be completely camouflaged into any of these fashions by the use of false hair.

Of course, the woman possessed of her own hair is at the advantage this season.

The pretty debutante who wants to be strictly vogue has to resort to false hair. The "Debutante," which head to the lovely coffure, is based, of course, upon the waved hair with head to the lovely coffure, is based, of course, upon the waved hair with list slight frange and the slight pompadour.

A transformette or long waved piece of hair, also waved, is attached piece of hair, also waved, is attached phead to the lovely coffure to hair is partly braided and fastened piece of hair, also waved, is attached phead to the lovely coffure to hair is partly braided and fastened phead to the lovely coffure to hair and hought across the forehead, the hair having been had been to of the lines of your figure, as to bedice, and then fills lengths and lengths of waved and parted on one side. Then then filtr lengths and lengths of when the braided circlet reaches behind the ear it is caught with a large fancy hairpin and the unbraided part is spread completely over the back of the head to the nape of the neck. And here is something distinctive about this season will cling to the lines of your figure, as to bedice, and then filtr lengths and lengths of when the braided circlet reaches behind the ear it is caught with a large fancy hairpin and the unbraided part is spread completely over the back of the head to the nape of the neck. And here is something distinctive about this season will cling to the lines of your figure, as to bedice, and then filtr lengths and lengths of then filtr lengths and lengths of the fast the nape of the neck. The hair is left free over the ears. Then is transparent folds will be flowers, heavily fancy having hear the braic circlet reaches behind the unbraided part is spread completely over the back of the head to the nape of the neck and the information of the back of the head to the nape of the neck is spread comp

The Rev. R. E. Elmore, pastor of into account. Personal and family the Central Christian church, termi-matters could not be ignored. Per-congregation are ravished by a vision of progress, of hope and of accomplishment extending through the coming years, and stirs mightily these people to a more humble devotion as well as leading them to greater exceptions and express constantly

Wherever the itching and whatever the cause Resinol rarely fails to stop it at once Try if yourself and see

The Calvary Baptist church of The Rev. R. E. Elmore, paster of the Carlival Christian church, terminates his work with the church in this city tomorrow. He, with Mrs. Elmore, their son and daughters, will leave on Monday. This most excellent family have won their way into the hearts and permanent affections of hundreds of friends scattered of hundreds of friends scattered on the content of the calvary Baptist church of this city recently called to the passion to call the Rev. San P. Gott of Jackson, Mississippi. The Rev. Mr. Gott is said to have made an enviable great brotherhood with which he is recommended to the passion. Mississippi. The Rev. Mr. Gott is said to have made an enviable great brotherhood with which he is content to come west, and his acquisition to the Eapsidence nearer the center of the Southeast Missouri and brings to church refused to release him, but arizona the heartiest endorsement of the denomination and a character of the correct the Rev. San P. Gott of Jackson Baptists church of this city recently called to the passion to creat the Rev. San P. Gott of Jackson Baptists church of this city recently called to the passion to creat the Rev. San P. Gott of Jackson Baptists church of the civic weifars of the son. Mississippi. The Rev. Mr. Gott is said to have made an enviable great brotherhood with which he is son. Mississippi. The Rev. Mr. Gott is said to have made an enviable son. Mississippi. The Rev. Mr. Gott have a community.

Arizona Baptist church of this city recently called to the passion to creat the Rev. San P. Gott of Jackson Baptists are much gratically and community.

Arizona Baptist church of the son of the son of the Nor-like and for the civic weifars of the son of the said to have made an enviable son. Mississippi. The Rev. Mr. Gott have an advanced to repeat the correc

For the Dance

BY MARIAN HALE

NEW YORK—With an 1840 air of quaint primness your dancing gown this season will cling to the lines of your figure, as to bodice, and ter Theological Seminary of Roches-ter. New York. Mr. Gott has had a wide experience in the work of the denomination as pastor, as field representative of the William Jewell college in the interest of the endow-ment, and also as a member of its faculty.

He is a man of pleasing personality, strong character, genial disposition and is an indefatigable worker. He has always been a leader in the work of the denomination which he represents for many years and will undoubtedly take his place among the leaders here, bothin religious activities and for the civic welfare of the

By Sister Mary SQUIRREL IS GOOD

Three squirreis, 2 green peppers 1 onion, 1½ cups diced carrots, ½ cup rice, 3 cups canned tomatoes, bacon fat, salt and pepper, flour: Squirrel pie was an old-fashloned leacy much relished by our grandfathers.

Two or 3 squirrels, I large oni.n. Clean and disjoint squirrels. Let lemon, 3 slices salt pork, biscuit stand in salt water for half an hour.

I lemon, 3 slices salt pork, biscuit crust.

Skin and dress squirrels. Disjoint and put in salt water for an hour. Put in a kettle, pour over boiling water to more than cover, add onion and simmer half an hour. Drain and sprinkle with lemon juice. Roll in flour. Put the salt potk in a hot sprinkle with lemon juice. Roll in flour. Put the salt potk in a hot spider and fry out the fat. Fry the squirrels a nice brown and transfer to baking dish. Stir 2 tablespoons of flour into the fat in the frying pan, add 2 cups of water slowly. Let boil two minues and pour over squirrel. Cover with a crust made as follows: Rub 1 tablespoon lard in 1 cup flour sifted with ½ tenspoon salt and 2 teaspoons baking powder. Cut in milk to make a soft dough. Bake 45 minutes in a hot oven.

SEARCH FOR SUNKEN TREASURE

NORFOLK, Va.—Search for sunken treasure amounting to $3,000,000, which has been at the bottom of the ocean 11 years is vigorously going on at a point 60 miles east of the Virginia capes, where the steamer Merida went down following a collision. The treasure hunters on the salvage ship Ripple believe they have found the wreck of the sunken vessel, and expect soon to recover the fortune abandoned when the vessel sank.

The Merida's treasure consists of a The Merida's treasure consists of a large quantity of giver, about $500,000 in gold and a quantity of precious stones. She was sunk in May, 1910, when bound from Mexico, via Havana, for New York, by the steamer

Squirrels are delicious cooked with vegetables in a stew. Squirrel Stew

"Nothing."

"Were you there?" *

You cannot walk gracefully unless your feet are comfortable. You cannot be comfortable unless your shoes fit and properly support all bearings of the foot arch. It is the absence of proper strength in shoe arches which subjects foot arches to the strain that eventually produces flattened arches. Arch Preserver Shoes are made with low, medium and high heels and in smart styles. But the usual foot strain is relieved. Special last modeling, and a form-fitting, unbendable shoe arch that comes up and stays up to the foot arch, prevent strain and protect you from suffering or flatfoot.

To keep good feet good, to make unhappy feet comfortable, and to have a graceful carriage, insist on shoes that have this mark on the sole. We sell them.

Nelson Shoe Co., Inc. 44 West Washington

Sirloin Steaks, Per lb	20c	Shoulder Pk. Roast, Per lb	20c
Sirloin Roasts, Per 1b		Veal Shoulder Rosst, Per lb
Pork Chops, Rib or Loin, per lb	35c	Veal tSew, Per lb	10c
Country Sausage,			200

We do not handle frozen or cull meats.

Young, Bellas & Young

Phone 1507 315 West Washington St.

Phone 1335-1392 402 East Van Buren St.

